(d) if not, whether Government also propose to take any initiative in this regard in near future;

(e) if so, the details thereof; and

(0 if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OFHOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CHENNAMANENI VIDYA SAGAR RAO): (a) to (f) After the release of Dr. Rajkumar from captivity by Veerappan, the State Governments of Tamil Nadu and Karnataka formulated a joint strategy for the purpose of nabbing Veerappan and requested Central Government for assistance of Para-Military Forces, weapons and equipments etc. which was provided. The two State Government reactivated the Special Task Force (STF) operations assisted by the Central Para-Military Forces, combined onslaught of the STF and BSF compelled Veerappan to run from his familiar territory to a new area namely Boluvampatti Reserved Forests in Coimbatore district and Walayar Reserved Forests in Palghat District of Kerala. The gang was sighted on 02.02.2001 upon which a brief encounter took place with the police party. Unable to withstand the police firing, Veerappan and his gang escaped into the forests leaving their personal belongings behind. Maran, who is the Chief of TNLA and a prominent member of Veerappan's gang was arrested by the STF on 15.02.2001 from a place called See thai vanam in the Boluvampatti reserved Forests of Coimbatore district. According to the State Government of Tamil Nadu, combing operations are in progress by different search parties of the STF constituted to nab Veerappan.

The State Government of Tamil Nadu has requested the Central Government to allow retention of the BSF Battalion provided by the Central Government for some more time along with services of helicopters, supply of equipments etc. Central Government has been providing all available assistance as sought by the State Governments of Karnataka and Tamil Nadu from time to time and the latest requests are also being dealt with appropriately.
